27 prompts / 11 product stills + 8 exploded end frames + 8 lifestyle images

HOW TO USE THIS PACK

Each prompt below is complete: its background and shared commercial style are already included. Copy the prompt text beneath the settings. Keep filenames exactly as listed; save original downloads in D:/BR-ICE/assets/. Do not add BR-ICE or any other lettering to the images.

GENERATION ORDER

1. Make S01 and S02. Use S02 as the reference in the same chat for S03-S07 so every cone matches. Then make S08-S11. 2. Edit each matching S01-S08 still to make E01-E08. Preserve framing, light and background. 3. Make the seven lifestyle photos and the pasture. 4. Use the separate Video Prompts PDF to animate the approved stills.

SETTINGS FROM YOUR BRIEF

Product stills and end frames: Nano Banana, 16:9, 2K, full-resolution download. End frames: edit the matching still in the same chat. Lifestyle: Higgsfield Soul 2, 3:4. Pasture: GPT Image, 16:9. Model names are carried over from the supplied brief; availability has not been checked.

The original shared prompt says "4K" as an image-quality cue; the specified export setting remains 2K. For each image, use the output settings above. Use a watermark-free export. Keep products frozen, unprinted and inside the frame.

WHERE TO FIND THE PROMPTS

Pages 3-10: paired starting still + exploded end frame. Page 11: shop lineup + milk bottle. Page 12: floating scoops. Pages 13-16: lifestyle photography and pasture.

Source mismatch retained: the website section calls for London, but the supplied image prompts specify a picnic for the seventh gallery image. This pack preserves the picnic prompt without inventing a replacement.

APPROVE THESE BEFORE MAKING VIDEO

- No lettering, logos, fake labels or visible watermarks.
- One flat background; no gradient, vignette or background shadow.
- S02-S07 match: same cone, scoop size, height, framing and lighting.
- E01-E08 match their starting stills exactly in camera and background.
- Every exploded piece stays inside the frame with a clean margin.
- Ice cream stays fully frozen, with no melting, sagging or drips.

Hero pint

SAVE AS still-pint-closed.png

Nano Banana / 16:9 / 2K / Text to image.

A premium ice cream pint tub of matte pastel-pink paperboard, plain and completely unprinted, with a matching pink lid, a fine layer of frost on its surface, tilted 15° towards the camera, 20° above eye level, floating in mid-air, centred, filling the middle 40% of the frame height.

Premium ice cream commercial, photorealistic, shot on ARRI Alexa 65 with a 100mm macro lens, bright high-key studio lighting: large soft key light from the upper left, crisp white rim light, vivid saturated colour, glossy frozen texture with crisp scoop ridges and visible fine ice-cream grain, firm and fully frozen with no melting and no drips, subject floating in mid-air, no ground, no table, no shadows on the background, seamless solid bubblegum pink #FF8FBF, slightly deeper than the tub background with no gradient and no vignette, centred subject, generous negative space, no hands, no people, no text, no logos, no lettering, no watermarks, 16:9, 4K.

Nano Banana / 16:9 / 2K / Edit the matching S01 image.

Edit this exact image. Keep the same background colour, the same lighting, the same camera angle and the same centre point. Show the same product frozen at the peak of a slow-motion exploded view, like a premium product teardown: every part separated by clean gaps and suspended weightlessly around the centre, arranged in a balanced, roughly symmetrical burst that fills about 80% of the frame, with nothing touching or crossing the frame edges. Still fully frozen, no melting, no drips.

The lid has lifted straight up and floats above, slightly tilted. The tub has split into four curved paperboard panels drifting outward. The block of vanilla bean ice cream inside rises in the centre and splits into three thick horizontal slabs with gaps between them, showing a dense, creamy interior. Around it, a ring of fresh milk splashes and droplets, and a few ingredients from every flavour drift outward: a split vanilla pod, a dark chocolate shard, a cube of mango, two pistachios, a halved strawberry, a glossy caramel shard and a halved monk fruit.

Premium ice cream commercial, photorealistic, shot on ARRI Alexa 65 with a 100mm macro lens, bright high-key studio lighting: large soft key light from the upper left, crisp white rim light, vivid saturated colour, glossy frozen texture with crisp scoop ridges and visible fine ice-cream grain, firm and fully frozen with no melting and no drips, subject floating in mid-air, no ground, no table, no shadows on the background, seamless solid bubblegum pink #FF8FBF, slightly deeper than the tub background with no gradient and no vignette, centred subject, generous negative space, no hands, no people, no text, no logos, no lettering, no watermarks, 16:9, 4K.
